MANNINGTON

Sells Hotel.

Charles C. Wells has sold the Hotel Wells and restaurant to W. C. Sprigg o Belington, who will conduct the business at the present location, the new owner taking possession at noon yesterday. Mr. Wells, the retiring proprietor, in company with other local men, has several strings of oil well tools in operation, to which he will devote his time.

For Operation.

Mrs. Lelia Carson, of Brink, passed through Mannington on Tuesday, en route to Fairmont, where she will undergo a surgical operation at Cook her husband, William Carson.

To Convention.

Miss Flora Koen and Mesdames James S. and Guy S. Furbee left last evening for Wheeling, where they will represent West Augusta Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution at the State convention. The two first named go as delegates, and the latter as regent of the local chapter.

New Owners.

A. B. Baumann has sold the Mannington Transfer Company's business and equipment to James W. Coad of this city and Glenn D. Watts of Fairmont, who will conduct the business, using the office at the present location. Mr. Baumann's future plans have not been announced.

Injured in Battle.

In a letter received by friends here from Bee Loudenslager in France, he tells of having been in a hospital suffering from shrapnel wounds in the right ankle received in action. He is recovering and expects to be able to return in a few months.

Referendum Added.

The latest information from Charleston on the Mannington Charter bill is that a referendum amendment will probably be added to the original bill in the Senate.

Royal Arch Degree. Acadis Chapter No. 43, exemplified the Royal Arch Degree in the Masonic Hall on Tuesday evening. There was a pleasing attendance at the session, at which a buffet luncheon was served.

Mayor Proclaims.

Acting Mayor J. A. Mason has in conformity with President Wilson's proclamation for a memorial to the late Ex-President Theodore Roosevelt on Sunday, February the ninth, named Tuesday evening, February fourth at 8 P. M. at the Mayor's office as a time and place to arrange for the memorial.

Resumption Delayed.

A report is current that the Marion Window Glass plant will not resume operation until next August. Officials of the company say, however, that there is a possibility that the plant may resume before that time.

Personals.

Miss Elizabeth Conaway, a teacher in the high school, has as her guest, Miss Fay Morgan, of Morgantown.

Dr. Hupp of Wheeling, was called here the first of the week by the illness of Mrs. Laura McCrea of Monroe street.

Mrs. J. F. Blackwood of Fairmont, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Frank H. Huey of Logansport for a few days.
